

(The Two Sisters) Binnorie O Binnorie

There were two sisters lived in a glen
Binnorie o Binnorie,
And the bonnie millert laddie cam a-coortin o them,
By the bonnie mill dams o Binnorie.

Oh sister oh sister, will ye take a walk
Roond be the dams o Binnorie,
For to hear the blackbird whistle o'er its notes
By the bonnie mill dams o Binnorie.

They walked up and sae did they doon
And roon be the dams o Binnorie,
Till the elder stepped aside and dang the younger in
To the deep mill dams o Binnorie.

Oh sister, oh sister stretch oot yer hand
Binnorie o Binnorie,
And I'll gie ye my gold and a fifth o my land
For the bonny millert laddie o Binnorie.

It wisna for yer money that I dang you in
Binnorie o Binnorie,
It's you being so fair love and I so very grim
For the bonny millert laddie o Binnorie.

Oh millert oh millert rin oot yer dam
Binnorie o, Binnorie,
For there's some grand lady or some deid swan
Floatin up and doon the dams o Binnorie.
